Ban on new gas connections

†2200. SHRI KALRAJ MISHRA: Will the Minister of PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have put a ban on new gas connections;

(b) if so, till when;

(c) whether any foreign company has been given permission for its production and distribution; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF PETROLEUM AND NATRUAL GAS (SHRI MANI SHANKAR AIYAR): (a) and (b) The release of new connections by Public Sector Oil Marketing Companies (OMCs) has been affected by shortage of cylinders due to cylinder manufacturers not honouring their commitment on supplies because of continous increases in steel prices. This has resulted in some build-up of waiting lists of new customers. Government have, therefore directed OMCs to liquidate by mid-September the waiting list of LPG customers as on 1.8.2004.

(c) No, Sir.

(d) Does not arise.
